

Supplemental Appendix A

Script Told by the Experimenter for the Spontaneous Speech Task (Task 2)

Fred was big. Ted was little. Fred has money. Ted does not. Fred is getting wet. Ted is not. Fred plays the flute. Ted plays the tuba. Fred eats some spinach. Ted eats a beet. Here they're painting the house. Fred paints green. Ted paints red. Fred and Ted are going for a drive. Fred is driving slowly. Ted is driving fast. Ted says "where do you wanna go?" Fred says "why don't you decide?" They go to the mountains. Ted is skiing. Fred is skating. Afterwards Fred is cold. Ted is hot. Fred and Ted wanna sleep. Fred says, "don't you wanna stay there?" Fred is sleeping in the little green bed. Ted is sleeping in the big red bed. On the phone they say, "Goodnight Fred. Good night Ted." Fred and Ted don't sleep well all night. On the phone they say, "wouldn't you like to chat?" They walk up. They walk down. They walk and walk. Ted asks, "did you sleep well Fred?" Fred says, "my bed was too small." Ted says "my bed was to big." Ted says, "what do you wanna do?" Then the bird says "I know. Why don't you trade?" Fred and Ted are running back. Ted is jumping into the little bed. Fred is jumping into the big bed. Fred and Ted sleep. They sleep all day. The bird says, "do you see? Big dogs need big beds. Little dogs need little beds.

Note. Phonological targets are highlighted in bold.