

Supplemental Material S4. Posterior predictive check for Model 3.

Note. This posterior predictive check plots the observed (dark red) and simulated (light red) number of correct responses. The x -axis is the number of correct responses and the y -axis is the frequency in which the number of correct responses were observed.