

Supplemental Material S5. Language sample, picture elicitation, Case 1 (congruent data).

E I've got a couple more pictures to show you.
E I want you to tell me about them.
E What's going on here?
C The they're digging up sand.
C Trying to look for turtle eggs.
C And uh
E Have you ever been to the beach before?
E What did you do while you were there?
C Um just went in the water.
C Once I w- I went in the deep end with my sister.
C And the water went up my nose.
E Oh.
C Then it got out.
E Did it hurt?
C Uh not that much.
E That's good.
E What else did you do at the beach?
C Um then I had to go back.
C Then when I went back I digged myself into the wa-
C I digged myself into the sand.
E Fun.
E What is going on here?
C Santa's waving goodbye.
E What is he riding in?
C Um a truck.
E Is that normally what he rides in?
E Tell me what he normally rides in.
C A sled.
E What's going on here?
C The kids had a party at McDonalds.
E Have you ever been to McDonalds before?
E What do you do when you're there?
C I usually eat.
C I always have always have um hamburgers.
C Because they're delicious.
E Mhm.
C But I never have chicken nuggets.
C I don't like them.
E Have you ever been to a birthday party at McDonalds?
E Do you ever go in the Play Place?
C Uhuh.
E Who do you go there with?
C My family.
C So Kianna, Cameron, Mommy, Daddy, Olivia, and Derrick.
E Wow.
E Big family.
E What's going on here?
C A little boy got hurt.
C And a girl said "Are you okay" because he was outside playing on the playground.
C And he tripped and fell.
c And he was crying.

E Mhm.

E Has that ever happened to you before?

C Uh only sometimes.

C Just sometimes.

C Not all the time