

Supplemental Material S6. A male's O'Henry story retelling in its entirety (example of a narrative produced by a male with a baccalaureate degree).

¹⁰*A guy was waiting at a restaurant that was vacant.* ²⁰*He had a cigar.* ^{3C}A policeman came down the street. ^{4C}And (he) was curious as to why the man was there. ^{5C}The man said "I'm waiting on a friend." ^{6C}He lit his cigar. ^{7C}And (he) talked about how he was going to meet a friend. ^{8C}They ate at a restaurant. ^{9C}And (they) talked about how they were going to meet 20 years at the same day and time. ^{10C}The time that they would meet was 10 o'clock. ^{11C}After the policeman left, a man came over with his collar up over his ears. ^{12C}One guy was Bob and the other Jimmy Wells. ^{13C}They greeted one another. ^{14C}Then when they were about to walk off to go to another place to talk, they stopped. ^{15E}Something odd was about to happen because he said something about his nose. ^{16R}He was not the guy that he thought he was. ^{17R}The guy said when he lit his cigar he noticed that he was the guy that was wanted in Chicago. ^{18R}There was going to be a plain clothes man that was going to arrest him. ^{19CO}That was it.